*O Sacrament most Holy,
O Sacrament Divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving,
Be every moment Thine!*

On Easter evening, two disciples invited the Lord to “stay with us.” And Jesus accepted that request, and He has never left us. Jesus is with us in the Holy Eucharist.

Today is an extraordinary day for you to contemplate this mystical truth. From 10:00am to 10:00pm today, St. Lawrence Church will be open, providing you with the opportunity to spend quiet time with Jesus. On the altar, a consecrated Host will be placed within the monstrance so you may behold the Bread from Heaven. Gaze upon Him who was born on Christmas for your sake, the One who performed miracles, imparted wisdom, and endured suffering and death for your salvation.

So come visit the Lord today. Immerse yourself in an encounter with Him within the sacred walls of the church which was built to welcome us into His presence. Open your heart and allow His mercy and guidance to flow into your life, for He yearns to infuse your soul with grace and peace. Feel His acceptance, seek His guidance, and experience boundless love emanating from the Making the Mass More Meaningful: Really Behold the Lamb of God. When the priest raises the Host and directs us to “Behold the Lamb of God,” all activity should stop. Gaze upon the Host with devotion. Try your best not to be distracted. Look at the Host and adore Jesus. Use this moment to be grateful, and to prepare yourself to receive Holy Communion.
